CITY COUNCIL AGENDA ITEM

Memo Date: September 18, 2020
Agenda Date: September 23, 2020
Prepared By: Matthew Fuhrer, Interim City Manager
Through:
Requested Action:
Approve Resolution ____ naming the City's 250' T-Dock the "Capt. Ed Lanni T-Dock."

BACKGROUND:

At the July 22 regular City Council meeting, City Council provided direction for staff to return a resolution naming the City's 250' T-Dock the "Capt. Ed. Lanni T-Dock" due to his significant contributions to the City of Cocoa and service in the Merchant Marine. Captain Edward A. Lanni is a Cocoa Citizen who has contributed numerous volunteer hours to the City of Cocoa and is a retired Master Mariner of the United States Merchant Marine. In accordance with the City of Cocoa Code of Ordinances Chapter 2, Article 1, Section 2-9 a resolution approved by City Council is necessary to officially name the amenity.

Ed Lanni Civic Contributions/Service to the City
